Introducing Alameda County Behavioral Health Care (ACBH) Executive Team, Mr. Imo Momoh, ACBH Deputy Director and Plan Administrator

Please join our executive leaders in welcoming Mr. Imo Momoh, as the newest member of our ACBH Team!

Imo Momoh has joined the ACBH Executive Team as the Department's Plan Administrator and works alongside our Operational Leader and Deputy Director, Mr. James Wagner, to support the Department and residents of Alameda County.

Mr. Momoh has nearly 15 years serving in county behavioral health systems across the state. Throughout his career, he has served in different capacities that involve, program planning, research and evaluation, finance, quality improvement, workforce development, policy analysis, and Equity.

In his new role as Plan Administrator, Mr. Momoh will work closely with departmental directors, leaders, and staff to oversee several activities, including the following ACBH programs;

- Quality Improvement/Quality Management
- Information Systems, and
- Financial Services

In the coming months, Mr. Momoh will work alongside our Department's Executive Team as we further refine the organizational restructuring process that is already underway, and communicate future departmental reorganization efforts to our staff and stakeholders.

We look forward to your active participation during the upcoming ACBH Community Outreach meeting on Wednesday, February 5th, where we will both formally introduce and update you as a valued stakeholder to department re-organizational activities currently underway.
