FRAMELINE! LGBTQI2S Shorts and Feature Films

Moroni for President

82 min USA 2017 Directors: Sailsa Huusko & Jasper Rischen

Moroni Benally is running for the presidency of the Navajo Nation, the largest Native American nation in the US. Young, gay, Mormon, and highly educated, he sets out to confront the political establishment in a homecoming that challenges what he imagined home, and himself to be.

WATCH MORONI FOR PRESIDENT

Of Love and Law

94 min Japan 2017 Director: Hikaru Toda

Openly gay life partners Fumi and Kazu run a small law firm in downtown Osaka, Japan, where Mary (Kazu's mother) works part time running errands for the two. Together for 15 years, it hasn't always been easy gaining acceptance, in a country where their partnership has no legal recognition and stigma is rife.

WATCH OF LOVE AND LAW

Suicide Kale

78 min USA 2016 Director: Carly Usdin

Featuring Jasika Nicole (Scandal, Fringe) and actor/writer Brittani Nichols (Transparent, Words with Girls), Suicide Kale is a micro-budget dark comedy opening up the mumblequeer genre in LGBTQ film. Filmed in just five days with an intimate cast and crew of queer women of color, Suicide Kale is a tale of two couples, one brunch, and a mysterious note.

WATCH SUICIDE KALE

A Drag King Extravaganza

43 min USA 2008 Directors: Clare Smyth, Meaghan Derynck

This documentary examines Drag as performance art, centralizing around an annual drag king conference called the International Drag King Community Extravaganza (IDKE). Within this conference, gender, sexuality, race and ability are explored through in-depth discussions and provocative performances.

A Great Ride

33 min USA 2018 Director: Deborah Craig & Veronica Deliz

A documentary about lesbians aging with dynamism and zest for life. Deep friendships, determination, engagement, and quirky death-defying humor color this group portrait of women who are courageous role models for aging.

WATCH A GREAT RIDE

El Canto Del Colibri

53 min USA 2015 Director: Marco Castro-Bojorquez

Much like the seldom-heard song of the hummingbird, the voices of Latino fathers are rarely heard addressing LGBTQ issues. In Marco Castro-Bojorquez's El Canto del Colibrí, made in participation with Somos Familia and BAYCAT, these voices are amplified in a groundbreaking documentary.

WATCH EL CANTO DEL COLIBRI

Unboxed

35 min Australia 2017 Director: Sam Matthews

In this powerful documentary series, filmmaker and trans rights activist Sam Matthews sets out across Australia on a journey to meet other gender-diverse artists and share their stories, while challenging each of them to create a new piece of art based on the theme "Unboxed". Through their stories and their art, each artist shares the personal challenges they have encountered that have shaped them as individuals and as artists.

A Different Kind of Black Man

15 min USA 2001 Director: Sheila J. Wise

This short 2001 documentary takes a look at the ideas and feelings of successful, black gay men on such issues as sexuality and masculinity, as well as their perception of, and their role within, the black community.

Happy Birthday, Marsha!

14 min USA 2017 Directors: Tourmaline and Sasha Wortzel

A film about iconic transgender artist and activist, Marsha "Pay it No Mind" Johnson, and her life in the hours before she ignited the 1969 Stonewall Riots in New York City. Starring Independent Spirit Award winner Mya Taylor (Tangerine).

WATCH HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MARSHA!

Gaysians

13 min USA 2015 Director: Vicky Du

Gaysians is an exploration of family, immigration and language through the voices of five queer and trans Asian-Americans from New York City. The subjects share stories about their families, and in doing so, shed light on the complicated histories that have shaped these intimate and personal relationships.

WATCH GAYSIANS

Walk For Me

12 min USA 2016 Director: Elegance Bratton

A conflicted teenager is torn between their devotion to their mother and their desire to be their authentic self.
