DSM-5 Diagnoses for Clinicians Providing Services for Children, Adolescents, and/or Transition Age Youth

Monday, June 14, 2021

9:00 AM – 1:30 PM

(Sign in begins at 8:45 am; Training starts promptly at 9:00 am)

Location: Online via ZOOM

(Zoom link to be emailed to pre-registered training participants a few days before training)

Audience: Alameda County Behavioral Health and contracted provider Clinical staff.

Description: This course provides participants with the knowledge and skills to understand and make mental health diagnoses of children, adolescents, and transition age youth using DSM-5 criterion. Participants will be familiar with diagnoses of children, adolescents, and transition age youth and apply this knowledge for differential diagnosis.

Trainer: Rachel Michaelsen, LCSW, is a clinical social worker who has worked in HMOs, public agencies, and private practice as both a mental-health provider and a supervisor for over thirty years. She was a collaborating clinician investigator on the DSM-5 field trials. She has taught courses in DSM-5, clinical supervision, law and ethics, childhood psychopathology, time management, vicarious traumatization, and energy psychology at universities, conferences, and mental-health agencies.

Learning Objectives – at the end of the training, participants will be able to:

1. Identify criteria for at least three commonly used diagnoses in children and youth
2. Define at least two differences between a specifier and a subtype
3. Name at least two difference between PTSD in children 6 and under and individuals over 6 years old.
4. Name at least two differences between Bipolar Disorder and Disruptive Mood Dysregulation Disorder.

For ALL participants to complete an ACBH sponsored virtual training, attendees must take and achieve a score of at least 70% on the post-test(s).

If you have a reasonable accommodation request, or grievance regarding an ACBH training, please email or call the Training Contact listed on this flyer, and cc the Training Unit at Training.Unit@acgov.org.
