POLICY TITLE Client Rights, Consumer Complaint and Fair Hearing Processes for Substance Use Prevention and Treatment Services	Policy No: 350-1-1 Date of Original Approval: 1/2/1995 Date of Revision(s): 11/01/1997; 3/7/17

PURPOSE

This policy addresses the need to ensure that consumers of Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services (BHCS) substance use prevention and treatment services are informed of their Client Rights and are also offered resources to address complaints with their service provider. This policy also ensures that consumers are informed of their right to file a complaint with the Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Complaint Division of the California Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) and/or, for Drug Medi-Cal beneficiaries, to file for a State Fair Hearing.

AUTHORITY

Current BHCS contracts with the State Department of Health Care Services (DHCS); 42 California Code of Regulations Section 2.1 through 2.67-1; Title 9, Chapter 4, Section 9823.1 and 10541 (a). Title 9, Sec. 3060,13065 (Counselor Code of Conduct); CCR Sec 10561 (Special Incidents-death, disease outbreak, personnel, structural changes, other information of a critical or emergency situation); 42 CFR Part 455 (fraud compliants/audits & investigations), 42 CFR Subpart A (SUD investigation prior to referral to law enforcement); 42 CFR Part 1007 (fraud and elder abuse); CCR Title 9 Chapter 5 Sec, 10543 (complaints regarding licensed and/or certified facilities);Section 10542 (complaints regarding unlicensed facilities); Title 22, California Code of Regulations (CCR), Sections 50951 and 51014.1; Welfare and Institutions Code, Sections 10850, 10951-10965;Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; Section 504, Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990; and California Government Code Section 11135 (Discrimination); Title 9 CCR, Chapter 4, (Narcotic Treatment Programs), Article 6 Code 10420.

SCOPE

All BHCS offices and staff as well as entities and programs providing substance use prevention and treatment services under a contract or subcontract with BHCS are required to adhere to this policy.

POLICY

This policy identifies client rights in the substance use prevention and treatment setting, provides examples of unsatisfactory services, and describes the beneficiary complaint and State Fair Hearing processes that consumers shall be informed of by their SUD provider.

PROCEDURE

- I. BHCS providers contracted to provide substance use prevention and treatment services shall post a public notice of Client Rights (see attached BHCS Client Rights poster) within the clinic setting. The BHCS Client Rights poster shall be used to notify each consumer of the following Client Rights:
 - a) The consumer's right to privacy of their treatment, and confidentiality of their treatment record;
 - b) To be treated with dignity and respect by their provider, staff and other individuals;
 - c) To receive treatment services in a safe, healthful, and comfortable setting;
 - d) To be free from intellectual, emotional and/or physical abuse;
 - e) To be informed by their provider of the law(s) regarding complaints and who to contact;
 - f) The right to access their records; and
 - g) The right to voluntarily attend church, religious practices or meet with their spiritual advisor provided that these activities do not conflict with program requirements.
- II. Examples of unsatisfactory service include but are not limited to the following:
 - a) If the consumer is not receiving the type of treatment that is needed or wanted;
 - b) If the quality of the service is not meeting the needs of the consumer;
 - c) If there is a sense of discrimination or being treated unfairly; and
 - d) If appointments are in conflict with the consumer's schedule or create a barrier to accessing treatment.

The SUD provider will provide the consumer with DHCS contact information for the SUD Complaints Division of DHCS. A complaint can be filed orally (phone call), in writing (mail or fax), or electronically:
