

WORKSHOPS FOR MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

All workshops can be provided in person or virtually at your convenience. Intended for medical providers (physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and other medical staff).

To learn more or to schedule an information session:
communityeducation@crisissupport.org or scan the QR code below

Suicide Prevention in Medical Settings:

Learn how to recognize suicide warning signs and provide support to patients who may be experiencing suicidal thoughts within various roles

- The Role of Providers (Physicians, PAs, NPs)-2 hr
- The Role of Providers-1 hr version
- The Role of Pediatric Providers-2 hr
- The Role of Nurses-2 hr

Suicide Safety Planning: An Introduction

Learn the basics about how suicide safety plans work in this overview workshop, and how to help patients create one-1 hr

Health Care Professional Wellness: Managing and Preventing Burnout

Explore the unique risk factors experienced by health care professionals that contribute to burnout. Learn about tools and resources to help prevent and manage burnout-1 hr

Speaker Bio:

Jennifer Johal, MD, MPH, CHES® is a program coordinator at Crisis Support Services of Alameda County. With a background in medicine and public health, she has been providing workshops for medical professionals since 2018.