

Groundbreaking Liberatory Leadership Certificate Program

offered by Internationally known Freely in Hope
Principle Trainer – Nikole Lim

THIS IS A FREE TRAINING

You will participate in 4 Wednesday Sessions:
October 11, 18, 25 & November 1 • 9am – 12pm

Sessions cover:

- Emotional Safety in Leadership
- Transformational Leadership
- Appreciative Leadership
- Sustaining Leadership

Participants will:

- Gain leadership skills that promote individual and collective well-being;
 - Explore organizational development practices that foster healthy organizations;
- Learn how to prevent sexual abuse and establish communal care, shared values, and effective cultures in their organizations and communities at large.

Sessions will be held at Oakstop–274 14th Street–Downtown Oakland

In partnership with HHREC, Freely in Hope is offering a four-part Liberatory Leadership Certificate to equip community-based organizational leaders to strengthen their communities through a trauma-informed, equity-centered and anti-oppressive lens.

REGISTER HERE

CBL Trainings are free to Alameda County residents and service providers. Visit acmhsa.org

For questions contact:
CBL Program Manager tacbl.hhrec@gmail.com

