

Behavioral Health Department

Alameda County Health

Welcome, Jennifer Yun Clinical Manager, Guidance Clinic

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Jennifer Yun as the Behavioral Health Clinical Manager over ACBHD's Guidance Clinic at the Juvenile Justice Center.

Jennifer is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with over twelve years of experience providing assessment, case management, and psychotherapy to individuals and families in a variety of settings. Her clinical background includes working with adults with developmental disabilities, older adults, clients with serious mental illness, and at-risk youth/adolescents.

Jennifer has been with Alameda County Behavioral Health Department since 2018. During this time, she has held roles of Behavioral Health Clinician II, providing direct client services as well as Behavioral Health Clinical Supervisor, overseeing programs serving complex and vulnerable populations. In past positions, she has worked extensively to improve processes and operations that led to improved clinical care and quality of life for clients and residents.

In her new role, Jennifer will be responsible for managing the day-to-day operations of the Guidance Clinic, providing clinical support to the Guidance Clinic's clinical team, and enhancing the therapeutic model of the Guidance Clinic to ensure our clients receive quality behavioral health services.

In her spare time, Jennifer enjoys spending time with her husband, two sons, and cats, trying new and interesting foods, and watching fun reality shows and television series.

Please join me in congratulating Jennifer in her new leadership role and this exciting new professional chapter!
