

Alameda County Behavioral Health Department (ACBHD) is pleased to offer a FREE training:

*Working with Youth in School Settings:
Integrating Substance Use Disorder
Treatment into Mental Health Services*

Tuesday, April 29, 2025
9:30 A.M. to 12:45 P.M.

Location: Online

(Zoom link will be emailed to registered participants a few days before the training)

Target Audience: Alameda County Behavioral Health staff and it's contracted provider staff (CBOs).

Trainer: Dr. Sam Himelstein holds a PhD in clinical psychology and has been a licensed psychologist since 2012. He has written numerous books and trained clinicians around the world in the topics of trauma-informed care, substance use disorder treatment, and mindfulness. He founded and is the CEO of a outpatient mental health and substance use disorder clinic in California.

Description: This half-day workshop will invite participants into a discussion about a trauma-informed, mindfulness-based framework for facilitating substance use disorder treatment with youth and young adults. Youth and young adults are distinguished populations in which specific techniques and approaches are necessary for engagement and clinical growth.

Learning Objectives – at the end of the training, participants will be able to:

1. Identify two ways that trauma plays a role in the development of substance use disorder.
2. List one conceptual framework for practicing trauma-informed, substance use disorder treatment with youth and young adults.
3. Demonstrate at least two self-regulation techniques within a trauma-informed, substance use disorder treatment framework.
