JANUARY TOPIC: LEGAL BARRIERS

We invite you to our upcoming January episode of the "Homecoming Series" (Formally Returning Citizen Series), where we explore the crucial legal challenges confronting individuals re-entering society after incarceration. Expert panelists Trancita Ponce and Lawrence Cox will address key topics such as employment discrimination, housing restrictions, access to education and training, and financial barriers. Tune in to gain essential insights and guidance as we delve into the journey of re-entry and empowerment for those seeking a new beginning.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The "HOMECOMING Series" is a program within Alameda County's Behavioral Health (ACBH) Community Based Learning (CBL) Training Program which offers organizations in the county valuable, no-cost training sessions designed to enhance mental health outcomes for consumers and families.

Providing a forum for individuals with justice system experience to educate service providers and community members, we aim to increase awareness, support those re-entering society, and assist families in this critical transition.
