

Behavioral Health Department

Alameda County Health

Welcome, Antoinette Taylor Clinical Supervisor, Behavioral Health Court

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Antoinette Taylor as the Behavioral Health Clinical Supervisor over ACBHD's Behavioral Health Court.

Antoinette is an Oakland, California native with over 11 years of dedicated experience as a Social Worker. She joined Alameda County Behavioral Health Department in 2017, working within the Forensic, Diversion, and Re-Entry System of Care. Since then, Antoinette has brought her clinical expertise, empathy, and commitment to social justice to several programs, including Santa Rita Jail, CONREP, and the Mental Health Courts.

Antoinette is known for her client-centered approach, strong advocacy skills, and ability to navigate complex systems with compassion and professionalism. She is particularly passionate about serving clients with severe mental illnesses who are impacted by the criminal justice system, support their treatment, recovery, and successful reintegration into the community.

In her new role as supervisor, Antoinette is excited to support and guide staff while fostering collaborative and trauma-informed team culture. She is committed to strengthening program practices, promoting equity in service delivery, and ensuring high-quality care for some of the most vulnerable individuals in the community.

Outside of work, Antoinette enjoys spending quality time with her family and friends, traveling, camping, singing karaoke, and taking long walks with her terrier mix, Boba.

Please join me in congratulating Antoinette in her new leadership role and this exciting new professional chapter!
