Welcome, Trakalya Goodwin! New Administrative Assistant

Alameda County Behavioral Health Department (ACBHD) is pleased to announce the appointment of Trakalya Goodwin as the new Administrative Assistant on the Family Empowerment Team.

Trakalya is a proud Oakland native and a graduate of California State University, East Bay, where she earned her degree in Sociology and Criminal Justice. She has over ten years of experience with the Oakland Police Department, where she served as a crime analyst across multiple units, including the Gang Unit.

In 2023, she began her career with Alameda County as a TAP (Temporary Assignment Pool) employee, gaining valuable experience and insight into county operations. During her time with the Alameda County Public Health Department, she has been assigned to multiple units, including Housing and Homelessness, as well as Procurements, Grants, and Contracts, further expanding her knowledge and versatility within county systems.

In addition to her professional experience, Trakalya is a dedicated mother of one who enjoys reading, hiking, shopping, traveling, attending church, and spending quality time with her family. She is also a sports lover and enjoys staying engaged with athletic activities and events. She takes pride in her organizational skills and strives for excellence in everything she does.

Trakalya is excited to join the Office of Family Empowerment and looks forward to contributing her skills and experience to support the department's mission and the community it serves.

Please join us in welcoming Trakalya Goodwin to our team of family members who help redefine how our community engages with families!

Welcome to our Team, Trakalya!
