

Behavioral Health Department

Alameda County Health

Welcome, Jennifer Yun

Interim Juvenile Justice Health Services Director

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Jennifer Yun for the role of interim Juvenile Justice Health Services Director.

Jennifer is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with over twelve years of experience providing assessment, case management, and psychotherapy to individuals and families in a variety of settings. Her clinical background includes working with adults with developmental disabilities, older adults, clients with serious mental illness, justice impacted youth/adolescents.

Jennifer has been with Alameda County Behavioral Health Department since 2018. During this time, she has held roles of Behavioral Health Clinician II providing direct client services, Behavioral Health Clinical Supervisor overseeing programs serving complex and vulnerable populations, and most recently served as the Clinical Manager at the Guidance Clinic expanding behavioral health programming at the Juvenile Justice Center (JJC). Jennifer has worked extensively to improve processes and operations that have led to improved clinical care and quality of life for clients and residents.

Jennifer will continue to serve as the Guidance Clinic Manager responsible for day-to-day operations of the Guidance Clinic and delivery of behavioral health services at JJC. As part of her new role, Jennifer will also be responsible for oversight of JJC's substance use programming, coordination of care with JJC medical services, and CaAIM implementation.

Jennifer has done an amazing job in building out the behavioral health model for the JJC and has built a strong team of passionate and skilled clinicians. I know she will excel in this new role and strengthen our commitment to providing quality health services to our justice impacted youth.

Please join me in congratulating Jennifer on her new leadership role and this exciting new professional chapter!
